Progress and Personnel — 1955

Three main departments working in close cooperation have built H. V. Lawrence, Inc. into a well-balanced and complete Cape Cod Horticultural Service: The Flower Shop and Greenhouses, the Cape Cod Nurseries, and the H. V. Lawrence Landscape Service of Construction, Planting and Design.

By virtue of his wise foresight, Mr. H. V. Lawrence, the original founder and active head of the business from 1886 until his death in 1953, provided well for continuity by building a close-knit organization of departmental heads and assistants.

We want you to know these men. They carry on together the business of the organization, whose service to an ever-increasing number of customer-friends has been characterized through the years by long experience, hard work and honest service.

Milford R. Lawrence succeeds his father as president and treasurer of H. V. Lawrence, Inc. A landscape architect by training, he continues his work of 34 years in that capacity while assuming the duties of general manager of the business as a whole.

Lewis H. Lawrence, vice-president, heads the Flower Shop and Greenhouses, where his 37 years of good work have earned a well-deserved reputation for exceptional skill and artistry. His assistant in the flower shop is J. Herbert Tyler. John V. Osborne is the grower in charge of production in the greenhouses.

George H. Bigelow with 19 years of service here is also vice-president and manager of landscape construction, handling our experienced labor forces in all types of landscaping, translating ideas and plans into satisfying reality. Associated in this department are W. Donald Durell and T. Richard Leonard, both with several years here. All these men are landscape architects and engineers, graduated from the University of Massachusetts.

E. Stanley Bolles, with us for more than 20 years, is the capable manager of our Cape Cod Nurseries, directing the propagation, growing, care and marketing of over thirty-five acres of all types of hardy materials suited for use on Cape Cod. Earle Bruorton handles well the added Nursery Service of landscaping suggestions and plantings for small home grounds. Clayton D. Smith is an arborist by training and specializes in the proper care of trees and plantings. Myron Farias has for many years been in charge of our Perennial Nursery.

Our new Cape Cod Gardening Center on Route 28 in East Falmouth will be staffed with capable landscape nurserymen, and all departments will contribute fully to make it efficient, serviceable and appealing. It is more fully described on pages 32 and 33.

Gardening on Cape Cod

Good gardening on Cape Cod is a most rewarding activity, increasing each year in quality, quantity and productive enjoyment.

Supplementing as it does the great natural beauty of shore and sea and homelike countryside, and the abundant recreational advantages of the region, good gardening is an increasingly important factor in keeping Cape Cod green, clean, and appealing.

It does involve problems of sea-wind exposure, of adequate soil preparation, and of the selection of the right plants for the right places. Wise planning and competent advice can assure success and satisfaction. The value of long experience in such work is considerable in creating on Cape Cod good gardens, good lawns, effective plantings, and in accomplishing the job simply, attractively, and at reasonable cost.

Good gardening on Cape Cod is our main business. To this end our best business efforts and our personal interests are dedicated. This is the broader meaning of the title we have used for several years for this somewhat different booklet, "Gardening on Cape Cod."

Landscaping for Pleasant Outdoor Living Near the Sea

Successful Seashore Planting

Salt-laden winds off the sea, and soils that are often light and sandy, require specialized knowledge to assure success with plantings in these situations so typical of Cape Cod.

Three main requirements are: planting in drift-like masses to give plants mutual protection; the substitution of good fertile soil for the unproductive sand; and, most important of all, the wise selection and arrangement of strong husky plants of kinds proven by experience capable of surviving in the salt sea wind exposures.

Our sixty-eight years of practical experience, together with skillful planning, and the superior quality of Cape-grown plant materials from our own Nurseries, have made Lawrence's seaside landscape plantings outstandingly successful in their lasting beauty and effectiveness.

Woods Hole — September, 1954

The large schooner was hurled by hurricane winds and flood water far onto the beach, but the Japanese Black Pines, though flooded, still survive

Hurricane Damage to Plantings and Lawns

Carol and Edna were about the most unwelcome visitors we've ever had on Cape Cod. Many waterfront properties were flooded, and even far inshore the storm-driven salt winds lashed ornamental plants and native growth. Tree damage was mostly in breakage of top branches. In smaller trees, flowering shrubs, roses, vines and hedges the younger top growth was killed back to an extent varying with exposure. Surface foliage on exposed evergreens was badly seared and in some cases permanent disfiguration has occurred. Broad-leaf evergreens suffered badly in many cases.

Generally speaking, however, with the exception of plantings actually flooded with salt water, damage is less severe than it first appeared. Correct pruning and some wise feeding will soon restore good growth and appearance.

Salt-flooded areas are in more serious condition. Again the Japanese black pine, unless actually broken, has proved itself the one great seashore tree by coming through unscathed. Also as expected, rugosa rose, beach plum, bayberry, tamarisk and Russian olive and some others, while partly killed back, have survived. Most other shrubs, evergreens, and perennials covered by tide waters have been completely destroyed.

Lawns that were flooded have reacted irregularly. Some have already made a good recovery. Most are spotty, and a few are killed almost entirely and should be dug over, fertilized and reseeded. All flooded lawns will require proper fertilizing, with new seed added where needed.

Spring is the ideal time for replacement plantings. Our labor forces are at their peak, and our supply of quality nursery stock is better than ever, in spite of our own hurricane handicaps.

We at Lawrence's will gladly help you restore and improve your grounds. First, our experience will enable us to determine and save all plants that can be restored by correct pruning and feeding. Following that, a suitable program for replacement will be worked out to fit your wishes and your budget.

Now more than ever, Lawrence's capable landscape and nursery service can be of greatest possible advantage and help.

A Garden Carefully Designed for All-Season Beauty

Hardy Perennial Flowers

Hardy perennials are the backbone of every good flower garden or border. They live on from year to year, and each season produce rewarding displays of blossoms of every color, form and character.

Because Cape Cod is such a summer home region we specialize particularly in those kinds which are summer-flowering — phlox, lemon lilies, balloon-flower, iris, lilies, delphinium, and a great many others.

Combined with well-chosen annuals they produce all-season pleasure and beauty that is a lasting delight from the creeping phloxes of early spring till the late frosts nip the chrysanthemums.

We grow in our greenhouses many thousands of the best annuals and bedding plants for use in summer gardens.

Bulbs for Fall Planting

Tulips, Daffodils, Narcissus, Crocus, Hyacinths, and other so-called "Dutch bulbs" are among the most popular of all hardy flowering plants.

Each fall we carry a fine assortment of the best of the moderate-priced varieties. Planting time is from mid-September until the ground freezes.

Also important for summer gardens are Gladiolus and Dahlias. These must be planted in the Spring, and the bulbs taken up and properly stored each Fall.

Planting Small Home Grounds

Observations based on experience, with some simple fundamentals of good landscape design, for members of the "Do It Yourself" Club — and others.

Today the average home grounds of Cape Cod, as in suburban areas, are relatively modest in size. So likewise is the income of the home owner.

This makes it more important than ever that investments in landscaping produce a combination of maximum usefulness, maximum attractiveness, and minimum upkeep effort and cost. This is the essence of good landscaping.

A little, done well, is better than more done poorly. "Flawless simplicity" is an ideal objective.

Around the base of the house, simple low plantings make it homelike and inviting, attractive to owners, friends, and passers-by.

A few well-placed trees frame the picture, give added beauty and useful welcome shade.

Clean, well-kept lawns are more to be preferred than many cluttered spotty plantings, and easier to care for. Unless there is ample room for a flower garden as such, keep as much open area as possible for greater outdoor living uses, and place flowers in marginal borders, with backgrounds of selected flowering shrubs and evergreens.

These marginal plantings, well planned, give privacy where desired, and create and frame pictures of beauty that are seen and enjoyed by family and friends from within the house, in fair weather or foul, all through the year.

Prepare the soil thoroughly before planting, with good depths of fertile loam and proper fertilizers. This is most important.

Our Cape Cod Nurseries will gladly have a competent representative call and advise you, without obligation, how best to accomplish whatever you may need. You, or they for you if you wish, may select appropriate plants from the Nurseries, and plant them with every assurance of complete satisfaction.

You'll like the results, and the friendly capable service that produces them. The Nursery Headquarters' telephone number is Falmouth 981-R.

Roses

Aristocrats of the Plant World

The great appeal of Roses is unique and universal. Character, beauty, fragrance and form — all are found in this outstanding family of plant friends.

Cape Cod seems particularly suited to growing roses. Mild winters and cool summers are favorable. Flower-colors seem brighter near the seashore. Anyone can grow and enjoy fine roses here if he will give them good rich soil, plant the best grade of plants, and take reasonably good care of them.

Hybrid Teas produce long-stemmed flowers in a marvelous range of colors, ideal for picking, beautiful in the garden.

Climbing & Trailing Roses

Great improvements have been made in producing larger flowers, wider color range, hardier growth, and in creating so-called everblooming kinds. Few are literally everblooming, but many are repeat-bloomers, producing abundant flowers at intervals from June through to late fall.

Varieties marked * are especially useful also for ground covers and low mass effects.

All our plants are top-quality field-grown two-year No. 1 grade.

Early Spring planting is recommended for dormant plants. After May 1, potted plants are best.

Dormant plants $1.50 each, 6 or more at $1.35 each.

Potted plants $2.00 each, 6 or more at $1.75 each.

Cultural Notes on Roses

Spraying. Roses always benefit from regular spraying. Use Rose-tox, a combination that is easy to apply that controls Aphis, Blackspot and all other Rose insects and diseases. Keep the plants and ground clean from infected leaves.

Feeding. For best results feed Roses lightly every three weeks up to mid-August. We recommend Agrico-for-Roses or other well-balanced plant food. A good handful to a plant is about the right amount. Frequent light feeding is better than too much at one time.

Best Plants for Special Uses

APPROPRIATE PLANT SELECTIONS FOR GOOD HOME LANDSCAPING

Seldom do we stop to appreciate how wide is the range and how diversified the characteristics of the thousands of plant species and varieties which thrive in our climate. In size and form, in leaf and flower and fruit, of every shape and color and season, the plant world offers us wide choice of the plant personalities that shall people our gardens and our grounds.

But plants, like people, have likes and dislikes as to where they want to be, and where and when they thrive most pleasantly. Nature controls unerringly the typical character of each. Ours is the choice where to put them, and upon the wisdom of our choosing (and the care we give them) depends the fullest development of each, and the success and satisfaction we achieve.

Knowledge of plants, and long experience in their best uses, supports the following suggestions, by no means complete, for plants we recommend for these special uses.

LOW-GROWING PLANTS FOR HOUSE FOUNDATIONS AND ATTRACTIVE FACING FOR TALLER PLANTS

Too many people still plant Pines and Spruces, and tall-growing Arborvitae and Retinosporas around the base of the house. They do look "cute" when they're young, but they quickly grow up to be big trees that cover the windows and smother the house.

There are many fine plants that are naturally low-growing, spreading, compact, rounded, or semi-upright in maturity. They are in better taste, make excellent permanent plantings, don't have to be rearranged or taken out every few years, require no harsh pruning. Here are some of the best:

Evergreens: Boxwood, Spreading and Dwarf Yews and Junipers, Leucothoe, Laurel-cherry, Inkberry, Dwarf Japanese and Box-leaf Holly, Wilson Rhododendron, Laurel, Dwarf Mugho Pine, Hinoki Cypress, Azaleas, Abelia, Pieris, Globe Arborvitae, Dwarf Biota; and of course the ground-cover plants like Myrtle, Pachysandra, Pachistima, English Ivy, Euonymous, Daphne, and Heather.

Deciduous: Floribunda Roses, Azaleas, Barberry, Bayberry, Warminster Broom, Cotoneaster, Dwarf Deutzias, Blue Hydrangea, Regel Privet, Waterer Spirea, and Vitex.

PLANTS FOR MIDSUMMER FLOWER BEAUTY

Summer residents add materially to the pleasure of living on Cape Cod.

Naturally they like trees, grounds, and gardens to be at their best in midsummer, while they may enjoy them. We natives, too, take pride in trying to have our year-round homes in good shape at that time. Here are plants that help:

Kousa Dogwood is a beautiful small tree that is covered in late June and early July with large creamy flowers.

In shrubs we like Rose of Sharon, Butterfly Bush, Vitex, Hydrangeas, Sweetpepper, Waterer Spirea, and particularly the Floribunda Roses.

In evergreens, the Rosebay Rhododendron, Abelia, and the popular Scotch Heather are in full flower.

Summer leaders in hardy perennials are: Phlox in a great many beautiful colors; Lemon Lilies, Balloonflower, several fine Lilies, Astilbe, Shasta Daisy, Globe Thistle, Japanese Iris, Gayfeather, Stokesia, Veronica, and Mallows.

All the annual flowers are of course at their best all summer long, and through to frost.

FOR BRILLIANT FALL COLOR

Many fine hardy plants provide a rich bonus in brilliance of autumn foliage, and often of gaily colored fruits.

Among the trees, Maples and Oaks, Beeches, Birches, and Dogwoods wear gay autumn clothing.

For brightest foliage in the shrubs, the Winged Euonymus (Corkbark or Burningbush) in flaming cerise leads all others. Clethra, Sweetshrub, Mock Orange and Rugosa Roses sport the yellows; Barberry, Blueberries, dwarf Maples, native Huckleberry, Woodbine vines, Cotoneasters, Red-vein Enkianthus, and Beachplum have the brighter reds; Forsythia, Doublefile Viburnum, Leucothoe, and Andorra Junipers give purplish tones.

Chrysanthemums are the great fall flower color group, with Hardy Asters supplying attractive complementing blues and purples.

Brilliance of fruit color gives many plants an even greater beauty than their flowers, a beauty which often lasts all fall and well into winter. Holly is an outstanding example.

PLANTS GOOD IN SHADY PLACES

It isn't the shade alone, but fully as much the lack of moisture, or competition with roots of trees that cast the shade, which limits the choice of plants for such locations. These plants are tolerant of conditions on the shady sides of buildings and in areas shaded by higher plant growth. It should be remembered that almost none of these require shade, nor will the flowering kinds produce as colorful displays in shady spots as in sunny places. It is just that they do tolerate lack of light much better than others do.

Evergreens: Boxwood, most Evergreen Azaleas, Euonymus, Yews, Leucothoe, Japanese Holly, Pieris, Rosebay and Carolina Rhododendron, Inkberry, Abelia.

Small Trees and Shrubs: Dogwoods, Clethra, Snowberry, Mock-Orange, Barberry, most Viburnums, Bush Honeysuckle, Corkbark Euonymus, Sweetshrub, Forsythia, and Privets.

Vines and Ground Covers: English Ivy, Euonymus, Virginia Creeper, Porcelain Berry, Honeysuckle, Myrtle, Pachysandra, Pachistima, Ferns.

Hardy Perennials: Monkshood, Columbine, Astilbe, Snake-root, Lily of the Valley, Bleeding Heart, Foxglove, Lemon Lily, Plantain Lily, German Iris, and Violas.

THE USE OF NATIVE PLANTS

Cape Cod is unusually rich in the variety and character of its native plant materials. We believe in these natives and use them constantly.

Cedars, birches, red maples, oaks, beeches and tupelo are leaders among the trees. The native pitch pine is not often safely transplanted. American holly is a Cape Cod native and is increasingly popular and valuable.

Best known native shrubs are beachplum, the fragrant bayberry, wild roses, sweetfern, blueberry, dwarf gray willow, sweetpepper, swamp azalea, chokeberry, shadblow, the glossy evergreen inkberry, and several varieties of viburnum.

Many provide especially brilliant early fall colors, as do the native woodbine and the several sumacs.

Most of these native plants we grow in our Cape Cod Nurseries. Many we collect from the wild and plant them successfully throughout this section. Like true Cape Codders, they are often rugged individualists, with a character and a reliability that make them good friends well worth knowing.

Deciduous Flowering Shrubs

This class of plants offers a most satisfying combination of beauty of flower, varying seasons of bloom, easy handling and maintenance, and quickest return on very modest investments.

Many provide extra dividends of brilliant autumn foliage and colorful fruits that prolong their attractiveness through late fall and even into winter.

Some, such as lilacs, viburnums, honeysuckles, grow tall and quite imposing. Others, like dwarf deutzias, barberry, bayberry, cotoneasters and floribunda roses, are low growing, particularly good for use in connection with single-story houses, both Cape Cod traditional and modern ranch-type homes. Still others are especially useful for close-clipped hedges.

Many other fine flowering shrubs are listed among the evergreens, on pages 49 to 53. Spring and fall are equally good planting times for shrubs.

Climbing Roses Feature Many a Cape Cod Home

Hardy Ground Covers and Climbing Vines

Here is a class of most attractive plants which offer added beauty, new interest, and practical usefulness.

More and more in place of grass, such plants as Myrtle, Pachysandra, English Ivy, Heather, Bearberry, and Ferns are used for permanent ground-cover planting in shade where grass does not do well, and also to cover open soil among taller plants.

Trailing vines such as Euonymus, Honeysuckle, and trailing Roses, properly planted and controlled, and also collected turfs of native ground-cover plants serve well to improve barren slopes and eliminate erosion.

Climbing vines like the Ivies, Clematis, Wistaria, Roses, the fast growing Fleece Vine and others are good investments, most desirable for cover and flower beauty on buildings, trellises, fences and walls.

The Lawrence Maintenance Service

Most of us don't seem to find time or energy to keep up our grounds as we'd like to have them.

Lawns need regular mowing; flower beds need edging and cultivation; faded flowers should be cut off; leaves and litter always accumulate; lawns and driveways need occasional raking.

To keep them in good condition and appearance, hedges need occasional clipping; shrubs and trees require skilled pruning. Those flowering in early spring should be pruned right after the flowers fade; others in fall or early spring.

Sounds like quite an undertaking. But it needn't be if done a little at a time, and at the right time, by those who know what is needed and how to do it.

H. V. Lawrence's special maintenance crews are well equipped with knowledge, experience and tools to do whatever is required to keep your grounds attractive and healthy. Charges are reasonable, too.

Of course, if you are a charter member of the Do-It-Yourself Club, more power to you. We'll gladly supply you all the plants, tools, fertilizers, seeds, insecticides, you need. And with good equipment, you'll be well able to do a fine job.

Either way, we're here to help you.

*Japanese Black Pines
Best in Seashore Exposure*

Evergreen Trees and Shrubs

Constant beauty throughout the entire year is perhaps the greatest single attribute of the Evergreens.

Of almost equal value is the rich and abundant flower production of many of the broadleaf types. Rhododendrons and Laurel are the best known examples. Pieris (commonly called Andromeda) and Firethorn are two exceptionally fine kinds for home use.

All the Hollies — there are several varieties — are outstandingly beautiful evergreens.

Pines, Spruces, Red Cedars, and most of the Arborvitaes and False Cypress make large trees, and should be planted away from the house.

For house plantings and low borders, the spreading Yews, Junipers, many broadleaves, and a variety of dwarf types of evergreens are most valuable.

Flowering and Shade Trees

Familiar trees like elms, maples, oaks, lindens, willows and beeches are like old friends. We almost take them for granted. When they suffer severe damage from storm or pest we seem to suffer with them. No home, no community, would be attractive without trees. For our own pleasure and that of succeeding generations we should plant new trees each year.

Particularly attractive, and of rapidly increasing use, is that large group of trees especially valued for their beautiful flowers. These include dogwoods, hawthorns, magnolias, golden-chain, flowering crab-apples and cherries, and several others. All make specimens of great beauty, and add value and enjoyment to all home grounds. They are particularly well suited for use in connection with the single-floor house and for small properties where space is at a premium.

For most kinds both spring and fall are favorable for planting.

In many varieties we have larger sizes than listed in specimen grade. Prices on request.

All trees bare root except where noted.

How and When to Plant

*Practical Suggestions for Everyone
Based on Experience
Tested by Time*

HOW TO PREPARE THE SOIL

It is important to have the ground adequately prepared before any planting is done. Average existing topsoil throughout most of the Cape is thin and sandy, with unfertile sand and gravel subsoil directly beneath.

Loam For success in new plantings, remove the unproductive subsoils and deepen the topsoil by adding new fertile loam to the following recommended depths:

For flower beds, vegetable gardens, and most ground cover plants, 10 to 12 inches minimum; 15 to 18 inches is that much better.

For flowering shrubs, floribunda roses, hedges, bush fruits and most evergreens, 16 to 18 inches.

For climbing vines, 24 inches deep and as wide as space permits.

For trees, both evergreen and deciduous, holes at least 6 inches deeper and 2 feet wider than the full spread of the tree roots.

For hybrid tea roses, special preparation 2½ feet deep is advisable to promote deep rooting and strongest top growth, — both valuable insurance against winter killing.

For good lawns, 4 inches minimum if subsoil is clayey, 8 inches on light sandy subsoil. Peat will help hold moisture and food.

Manure, Peat and Fertilizers

Mix with the fertile loam well-rotted cow manure, adding about 2 inches for every foot in depth. Prepared manure adds food as well as humus and organic content. Good native peat also added in the same proportion as manure will further aid in retaining moisture in lighter soils. In many cases the baled peat moss is more conveniently handled.

If soils are decidedly acid, lime should be added at the rate of 5 to 7 pounds per 100 square feet.

In planting vegetables and annual flowers, work in appropriate chemical fertilizers (we like the Agrico brands), 4 pounds per 100 square feet. For shrubs, roses, evergreens and trees, such quick-acting chemicals are best used for top feeding after planting.

HOW TO PLANT

Digging. In the prepared ground, for each plant dig a hole as deep as the roots, and wide enough to spread out the roots to their full extent. Work loose soil carefully among roots to leave no air spaces. Fill half way and water thoroughly. After water has settled, fill in the rest of the hole, firm the soil by treading in, leaving a shallow saucer-shape depression around each plant, and water again.

Watering. Water the soil (not the tops of the plants) thoroughly once or twice a week through the first growing season. Only a heavy rain can take the place of a thorough watering.

Staking. Trees 10 feet or more in height should be securely staked for the first year.

Mulching. Surface mulching with peat or cow manure is helpful after planting, especially during the winter. Put mulching around the plants, not on top of them, except in the case of those perennials which die down to below the surface in winter.

Spacing. Because plants vary so greatly in size and shape as they grow, distances apart when planting should be planned accordingly. Except in direct sea-wind exposures and for dense hedge effects, where closer planting is needed, do not overcrowd. Better allow room enough for each type of plant to attain its natural mature beauty.

WHEN TO PLANT. Two main seasons, Spring and Fall, are equally good for planting almost all kinds of hardy plant materials. Spring planting season extends here from about March 20 to late June, the earlier the better. Fall planting begins about September 15 and runs to mid-December. Our long experience suggests the following:

Hardy Perennial Flowers. Spring is good for all kinds. Fall is equally good for all except those which are fall-flowering, such as chrysanthemums and asters.

Flowering Shrubs and Trees, Shade Trees and Fruits. Spring and Fall equally good for most kinds. Cherries, peaches, dogwoods, hawthorns, beeches, birches are supposed to prefer spring.

Large Trees. Are also very successfully moved in midwinter.

Evergreens. Spring and early Fall are equally good.

Roses. For hybrid teas and most floribunda types and climbers we strongly favor Spring planting in this area. Two reasons: First, winter weather frequently varies between cold and warm which is unfavorable to fall planted roses; second, better selections of top-grade new plants are available in Spring. Dormant roses for planting up to May 1; potted plants for later Spring planting are best.

Bulbs. Such as tulips, daffodils, narcissus, hyacinth, crocus are offered only in Fall.

Annuals, Bedding Plants and Vegetable Plants. Are ready May 15.

Lawn Seeding. Best of all is from September 1 to October 15, next best April 1 to May 1.

Information for Customers

Guarantee

All our stock is guaranteed true to name, in good condition, carefully dug, and properly packed for safe delivery.

Where in our judgment our plants are properly planted and receive adequate watering and after-care, we will replace any plants that fail to survive the first growing season.

We particularly point out the great importance of thorough and frequent watering, not only at time of planting, but especially all through the summer months of the first season after planting. The larger the plant, the more important this watering is, and the greater the quantity needed.

Prices

1 to 5 plants of the same kind at the each price; 6 or more at the dozen rate, and 25 or more at the hundred rate where quoted.

Slight additional charges may be made for plants dug in midsummer, because of extra handling care required.

All prices quoted are F.O.B. our nurseries in Falmouth, and apply to our usual first-grade stock. Where a plant of exceptional specimen quality is selected, a special price will be properly charged.

Because of conditions beyond our control, prices are subject to change without notice. This list cancels all previous lists.

Deliveries and Shipping

Express, freight and parcel post charges are paid by the purchaser. Moderate crating and packing charges may be made.

Truck deliveries without charge are scheduled Fridays during April, May and June, covering all Cape Cod as far as Orleans. For other truck deliveries, fair charges are made, depending on distance and load.

Business Hours

The Lakeview Avenue Nurseries are open week-days from 8.00 A.M. to 4.30 P.M., but closed on Sundays and national holidays.
